The image shows a screenshot of a Pokémon game interface with a 'Log a death' dialog box open. The background interface includes a top bar with '2h Log a death — modal over graveyard', a left sidebar with 'CURRENT RUN' (Johto Hardcore), 'Routes 24/31', 'Party 4', 'Boxes 9', 'Graveyard 4', and 'Gyms & EV 4/8', and a right sidebar with 'Graveyard' and 'Timeline' buttons. The 'Log a death' dialog box has a title bar with a close button (X). It contains three main sections: 'WHO DIED' with a selection box showing 'Rocky' Onix ♂ L19 · Route 46; 'LOST TO' with a selection box showing 'Miltank' L20 · Rollout; and 'WHAT KILLED IT' with buttons for 'trainer' (selected), 'wild', 'status', and 'other'. Below these are 'WHERE' (Goldenrod City) and 'NOTES OPTIONAL' (Stayed in one turn too long...). At the bottom are 'Cancel' and 'Send to graveyard' buttons.

Try next: "make 2g a right-hand drawer instead of a modal" · "add a run stats screen" · "tighten 2c to a table"
